

Dear Friend,

I am thrilled that you will be joining us at the 2014 RESULTS/RESULTS Educational Fund International Conference. We're now less a month away from the conference kick-off on June 21. Thank you so much for taking the time out of your busy life to join us in DC. Your energy and advocacy at this moment will help seize enormous opportunities. Together we can help drive global goals to eradicate extreme poverty and radically reduce inequality, end preventable child deaths, and defeat AIDS and TB. And we'll work to harness the growing awareness and demand for greater action against poverty here in the U.S. to build support for the most effective programs and policies, and re-ignite efforts around an ambitious goal to end poverty in America.

The conference will be an inspiring time of networking, training, movement building, and advocacy. We'll be joined by hundreds of RESULTS grassroots advocates, allies, young leaders, and international partners, plus an amazing groups of speakers, including author and broadcaster Tavis Smiley, World Bank President Jim Yong Kim, Former Australian Prime Minister Julia Gillard, Children's Defense Fund founder and RESULTS board member Marian Wright Edelman, actor and advocate Sean Astin, USAID Administrator Raj Shah—and many more. Be sure to check out the latest conference agenda at <http://www.results.org/events/> for the full line-up.

We need our collective action to counter pressing challenges—attacks on our most important domestic anti-poverty programs and the danger that ambition and resources will not match need and opportunity. That's why I am so excited to see you here in 3 weeks! We have the chance to directly impact congressional and World Bank priorities, but it will take all of us, together, now. And we have the chance to expand our reach to more communities and more countries so that we can accomplish even more. As you get ready for the conference, consider inviting a friend to sign up and join you here in Washington. The more people we have in this moment to fight poverty, the stronger our collective momentum will be, and the more impact our movement will have on alleviating the unnecessary suffering of our fellow human beings and creating a more equitable nation and world.

Looking forward to seeing you soon,

Joanne Carter
